

AMERICAN INDIAN MENTAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

Zhawenim

compassion

Leadership Award Ceremony

Wednesday, August 30, 2017 | 5:30–7:00

Now Accepting Nominations For Leaders Ages 15–19 years old

* One youth can be nominated for more than one award ****

Upholding Seven Teachings Award:

Honors a Native American youth who embodies the Seven Teachings by living their life with Love, Honesty, Humility, Wisdom, Respect, Courage, and Truth.

Wilderness Award:

Honors a Native American youth who has shown commendable skills and knowledge of nature by using traditional and cultural ways/teachings.

Upholding Traditions Award:

Honors a Native American youth who is recognized as continuing essential traditional practices that are important to upholding the culture.

Hard Labor Award:

Honors a Native American youth who exemplifies hard work, dedication, and effort to their field of work/practice.

Intellectual Award:

Honors a Native American youth who has shown outstanding academic achievement through their hard work and dedication to education and knowledge.

Service Award:

Honors a Native American youth who gives back to their community through volunteer work and teaches peers through their leadership skills.

If you would like to make a nomination please email a brief bio and the reason for the nomination to: JoeyJacobson@fdlrez.com

Nomination Due Before August 16, 2017

Fond du Lac Human Services Division | Behavioral Health Department