

Highway Heavy Construction

Truck drivers have an important role in building the roads and highways we drive on. They haul and deliver dirt, soil, and other materials to the job site.

With a Class A Commercial Driver's License (CDL), you can get started in a high-paying, high-demand career as a truck driver in highway heavy construction.

Free CDL training

at Lake Superior College
for women, minorities and disadvantaged individuals

Call for more information 218-730-5246

Application deadline July 26, 2021. Next class starts Aug. 4, 2021. Eligibility factors apply.

EEO Employer